Defendants.

Crim. No. 05-10003-NMG

GOVERNMENT'S MOTION TO STRIKE

The defendant Joseph Yerardi, Jr. filed a document captioned "Notice To Court" on or about January 3, 2006. The document was filed by the defendant in his capacity as a "pro se defendant." Attached to the document is a complaint by the defendant to the Inspector General of the Department of Justice accusing the undersigned of prosecutorial misconduct.

The government submits that the document and its attachment should be stricken from the Court record because the defendant is represented by counsel in this matter and is not appearing "pro se." If defendant's counsel deems it appropriate to file a motion seeking some relief from the Court based upon the allegations in the complaint to the Inspector General, then defendant's counsel should make such a filing.

Therefore, the government respectfully submits that the aforementioned document and attachments be stricken from the Court record.

Very truly yours,

MICHAEL J. SULLIVAN
United States Attorney
